

NEWSPAPERS:

THEY CONTAIN OUR SHARED HISTORY.

That's why Europeana Newspapers is making 18 million historic newspaper pages searchable via two prominent digital culture websites: Europeana and The European Library.

- The scanned images of 10 million pages will be converted to full-text. This will help users quickly search for specific articles, people and locations mentioned in the newspaper.
- A special content viewer is also being developed to further improve newspaper browsing.
- For professionals, we are building tools to better assess the quality of newspaper digitisation in relation to levels of detail, speed and costs.

www.europeana-newspapers.eu

JOIN US ON A JOURNEY TO MAKE HISTORIC NEWSPAPERS MORE ACCESSIBLE FOR EVERYONE.

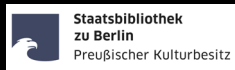

At WWW.EUROPEANA-NEWSPAPERS.EU you can learn more about our work, including:

- WORKSHOPS that examine how to improve the quality of digitised newspapers and European policy related to this type of content.
- A SURVEY for libraries with digital newspaper collections. It aims to build a complete picture of the extent of newspaper digitisation within European libraries.
- NEWS UPDATES via our newsletter and social media, on Facebook EuropeanaNewspapers, Twitter @eurnews and LinkedIn.

Project Partners: Berlin State Library – Prussian Cultural Heritage; National Library of the Netherlands; National Library of Estonia; Austrian National Library; University of Helsinki – National Library of Finland; Hamburg State and University Library; National Library of France; National Library of Poland; Europeana Foundation; University of Salford; CCS Content Conversion Specialists GmbH; LIBER Foundation; National Library of Latvia; National Library of Turkey; University Library of Belgrade; University of Innsbruck – Department for Digitization and Digital Preservation; Dr. Friedrich Teßmann Library; The British Library; The European Library.

This 3-year project began in February 2012. It is led by the Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin and co-funded by the European Commission under the Competitiveness and Innovation framework Programme. http://ec.europa.eu/ict_psp

