

Final Europeana Newspapers Workshop
Newspapers in Europe and the Digital Agenda for Europe

29th of September

What is the value of newspapers?

13.00 – 13.15	Welcome Caroline Brazier (The British Library) Marieke Willems (LIBER)
13.15 – 13.30	Europeana Newspapers Project Hans-Jörg Lieder (Berlin State Library, Coordinator of Europeana Newspapers Project)
13.30 – 13.45	The Digital Agenda for Europe Krzysztof Nichczyński (European Commission DGCONNECT)
13.45 – 15.30	Panel discussion: What is the value of newspapers? Tim Sherrat (Trove), Toine Pieters (University of Utrecht), Alastair Dunning (The European Library), Clemens Neudecker (Berlin State Library & Coordination of Europeana Newspapers Project), Max Kaiser (National Library of Austria)
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee
16.00 – 16.45	Break-out session: What is the value of newspapers?
16.45 – 17.15	Reporting back from break-out groups
17.15 – 17.30	Wrapping up
19.30	Dinner (participant's own expenses)

30th of September

Barriers to improving access to digitised newspapers

9.00 – 9.30	What helps the Europeana Newspapers project and its partners to improve access to digitised newspapers and what stops them? Marieke Willems (LIBER)
9.30 – 10.15	Break-out session: Roadmap for policy makers
10.15 – 10.45	Coffee
10.45 – 11.00	Reporting back from break-out groups
11.00 – 13.00	Panel Discussion: How to overcome barriers to improving access to digitised newspapers Kristiina Hormia-Poutanen (National Library of Finland and LIBER president), Lucie Guibault (University of Amsterdam), European Newspaper Publishing Association, Patrick Fleming (The British Library), Krzysztof Nichczyński (European Commission DGCONNECT), Henning Scholz (Europeana)
13.00 – 13.15	Wrapping up
13.15 – 14.00	Brown bag lunch